Re: Round 28

The Joint Budget Committee met January 25, 2008 to review the following recommendations. They had $35,724 to distribute. In carefully reviewing the applications, the Joint Budget Committee would recommend funding the following:

1. Milkworks

Amount: $2500

Program: Healthy Weights from the Start – a very collaborative project to provide low-income mothers and their babies at People's Health Center, Lacion Assistance.

2. Friendship Home

Amount: $7500

Program: Discovering my Strengths – working with 70 children a year, ages 10-14, whose parents reside at Friendship Home.

3. LCAD for SAAC

Amount: $7500

Program: To provide scholarship assistance to local coalitions and clergy in Lincoln/Lancaster County to participate in the 2008 Substance Abuse Action Coalition Prevention Conference.

4. Bryan LGH/St. Elizabeth Medical Center

Amount: $7500

Program: E.D. Connection – for crisis funding to assist clients who use emergency department services to pay for immediate personal care needs.

5. Lancaster County Medical Foundation

Amount: $7500

Program: Health 360 – to assist over 100 low-income clients to access special health services to prevent poor health care outcomes.

6. Lancaster County Mental Health Foundation

Amount: $2110

Program: To provide case manager training to 50 workers who assist new Americans with behavioral health issues.

Total Recommended Allocation - $34,610
